To Whom It May Concern:

I've worked with Bettse Birnbaum for almost ten years. My company owns and operates ten hotels, including five banquet venues, and we use Bettse's services to procure gifts and promotional items for our clients and guests.

Bettse will work tirelessly to help you meet your promotional item needs. She responds extremely quickly, and always follows up, which makes my life so much easier. When working with other vendors and suppliers, I usually end up feeling like I have to chase them to get the job done. I truly appreciate that I never feel that way with Bettse.

Bettse will never say no. She'll keep searching and trying to find creative solutions until she's found the product that you need. I also love her sense of humor, and always enjoy her visits.

I recommend that you choose Bettse Birnbaum from All That Jazz for your promotional item needs.

Sincerely,

Julia Coppock
